

ANTI-INDIANS.—The citizens of Antelope district, Sonoma county, have determined to drive out the Indians who are settled in that vicinity, even at the risk of extermination; also those white men who are living with squaws. It is alleged that the Indians are constantly engaged in stealing cattle.

The Sonoma County Journal

VOL. 3.

PETALUMA, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, JUNE 11, 1858.

THE SONOMA COUNTY JOURNAL

NO. 101

BUTTER

THE WEEKLY PAPER

FRIDAY, JUNE 11, 1858

NEW YORK