

DESPERATE INDIAN FIGHT.—We have just received the intelligence of another fight with the Indians, which, judging from the number of casualties, has scarcely had its equal during the war. We regret that we are unable to give the particulars more fully.

The fight occurred between a detachment of soldiers under the command of Lieut. Middleton of Company C, C. M., and a band of Trinity Indians.

We are not informed where this fight took place, nor of the numbers engaged.

Lieut. Middleton lost three of his men, killed on the field. The Indians received severe punishment from the Lieut. and his men, having had eleven killed.—Humboldt Times, 21st.

Weekly Trinity Journal

Weekly Newspaper, Independent in Politics, and Devoted to the Advancement of WEAVERVILLE, CALIFORNIA, JUNE 11, 1864.

MEYER & RULOFSON,
Photographers!
(Successors to Vance,
Nevada, and Sacramento streets,
SAN FRANCISCO.)

Professional Cards.
J. CHADBOURNE, P. J. HOWE,
CHADBOURNE & HOWE,
Attorneys at Law.
Offices,—Weaverville and San Francisco.

Weekly Trinity Journal.
Weaverville, Saturday, June 11, 1864.
THE BATTLE OF GETTYSBURG.—The rebel army

Northern D.
In hollows
In gloomy
In ravines
Its gushing
Wide, wide
Behold the
Some by the