

INDIAN AGENCY.—A. Wiley, Esq., lately appointed Indian Agent for the State of California—both districts having been combined in one—received his credentials and was introduced to office last Monday. Mr. Wiley is a devoted patriot and a first-rate man. He was formerly editor of the Humboldt Times, and later a member of Assembly from that country. In both capacities, he distinguished himself by integrity and ability.—Flag.

Trinity Journal

Independent in Politics, and Devoted to the Advancement of Home Industry

WEAVERVILLE, CALIFORNIA, JUNE 11, 1864.

Professional Cards.

J. CHADBOURNE - N. J. HOWE.
CHADBOURNE & HOWE,
Attorneys at Law.
Offices, — Weaverville and San Francisco.
— WEAVERVILLE OFFICE —

Weekly Trinity Journal.

Weaverville, Saturday, June 11, 1864.

THE BATTLE OF GETTYSBURG.—The rebel army of Virginia has never been anything like its

Northern Dead in Southern

In hollows of the Southern hills
In gloomy gorge in solemn aisles
In ravines where the rivulet treads
Its gushing music through the pines
Wild, wide o'er all the region
Behold the ashes of the dead.

Some by the blue Potomac's tide
Some by the Rappahannock's side
Some where the Mississippi flows