

LOST THEIR RECKONING.—Lieutenants Collins and Reynolds, with 40 or 50 men, left Humboldt Bay, a while since, for Round Valley, where there is an Indian Reservation. Owing to high water and bad piloting they have been detained at the head waters of the South Fork for the last two weeks. When last heard from they were encamped at Ketchikan Valley, forty-five miles south of Weaverville. So Mr. Messec tells us.

WEAVERVILLE, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, JUNE 12, 1858.

TNERSHIP.
 IGHED HAVE THIS DAY
 tnerably under the style of LOOK & SON, for the pura retail.

THE TRINITY JOURNAL.
 C. B. McDONALD, Editor.
 WEAVERVILLE

Waked Up a California Widower.
 Some weeks ago we wrote a little article, entitled 'California Widows,' which we did not consider of much account, but it seems to have waked many echoes in desolate caves of men's hearts.

Meeting of the Shasta Co. Democrat
 At a meeting of the Democratic Center of Shasta Co., held on Thursd the following resolutions were adopted: