

THE MISSING CHILD.—On Monday night last James and John Danskin, with a small party of friends, went to Hoopa, to endeavor to induce the Hoopa Indians to recover their little nephew. They have returned and report success so far as a promise from the old chief to obtain him if possible. A number of his tribe were to leave on the mission the day the Danskins left the valley to return.

HUMBOLDT TIMES.

UREKA, HUMBOLDT COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, JUNE 14, 1862.

the Great have Fallen from us One by One."

[From our Extra of Tuesday.]

sistent number of names to form a company of rifles. Adopted.

Letter from Orpheus C. Kerr.
Sunshine has at last resumed specie