

Col. HENLY.—To the San Francisco Herald we acknowledge ourselves and our county indebted, for the aid it has extended to us in our search after the sine cure officer, the Superintendent of Indians of California. Rumor has it that there is such an office, and that it is "embodied" in the person of one Thomas J. Henly. He has been written to, beseeched and entreated to take some steps to relieve our section of the troublesome Indians that infest it. Our rancheros have all been compelled to drive their stocks into the immediate vicinity of the towns. Not a pack train leaves this place unless doubly manned and armed, to resist the attacks of Indians. Such a state of affairs cannot last, our citizens will be compelled to take up arms and exterminate every Indian against whom suspicion is directed. To the "memorable seven" of Orleans Bar, we are more than half inclined to tender an apology for our castigation of their course, and in so doing divest ourselves of that sympathy and pity we once entertained for the Indian. We hope that Col. Henly can be induced to lay aside intregue and "compromise" and attend to the interest of the whites and the wants of the Indians, instead of making the office a political machine and of affording to his political favorites opportunities for speculation.

The Casses Purchase—A correspondent of California paper says that mines of gold and silver exist in the country purchased from Mexico by the Gadsden treaty, and that a number of them would not be permitted small parties who had gone thither in search of gold and silver. The discovery of the precious metals, found numerous gold placers, but were obliged to abandon them, owing to the hostility of the Indians and the difficulty of procuring supplies. It appears to be beyond a doubt that gold mines exist in the Gadsden territory, and that they will be discovered by the Gadsden treaty. THE BRITISH ARMY—A little drummer boy in the British army, who was in the thick of the fight at Inkermann, combating the Russians, has been presented by Prince Albert with the Victoria Cross. Napoleon would have taken such a lad and made him a soldier of fortune. He has only been a drummer boy in the British army, and he has been in the thick of the fight at Inkermann, combating the Russians, and he has been presented by Prince Albert with the Victoria Cross.

THE CONSPIRACY IN PARIS—The Paris correspondent of the New York Commercial, writing on the 22d ult., says: "The Emperor of France was discovered at the critical moment, and the parties are now in the hands of the Emperor. The Emperor was discovered at the critical moment, and the parties are now in the hands of the Emperor." The Emperor was discovered at the critical moment, and the parties are now in the hands of the Emperor.
