APPROVED.—We have heard several gentlemen from the northern portion of the county speak in approving terms of Col. Lippitt's order, published last week, giving Capt. Douglas discretionary powers in the conduct of the campaign in the region of Fort Anderson. Those of our citizens who are personally cognizant of the movements of Capt. Douglas in the field, believe him to be an energetic and efficient officer. It will not be for lack of exertion on his part, if the savages of Mad River and Redwood do not have justice meted out to them ere long, for their recent diabolical depredations.

Alleged Treason in Michigan—Curious Developments in the History of 1861.
The following letter, published in the Detroit Tribune, is the one alluded to in the Senate proceedings of March 26th, having been called up by Senator Latham. The Tribune prefaces the letter with the subjoined remarks:
"This letter we have from an official source, the original of which is now in the Department of State at Washington.

munistic, but will wait till an opportunity offers to send it by a safe hand. I am obliged to send it by mail.
"May God prosper the cause. The S— [South] is doing gloriously. It wrings my very heart, however, to see our brave countrymen N— [North] and S— [South] sacrificed to carry out the hellish plans of our tyrants.
"May our project prove a second Sicilian Vesper, attended with all its success; but, I fervently pray, without its blood-

A STRANGE STORY.—The following wonderful story is told by a correspondent of the Dublin Evening Mail.
This life is the age of discovery, and one of such a startling nature has just been made in an English country, that it seems out of place in the region of sober fact, and to belong purely to the atmosphere of the three-volume novel. Here are the circumstances; the names for the moment, I am not at liberty to indicate:
