

INDIAN REPORT OF THE MURDER OF FOUR WHITE MEN.—The Indians in this vicinity report that four white men were killed at or near the upper crossing of Mad River, on the trail from Bucksport to Weaverville, and that their cattle (eight head) are ranging loose in that vicinity. Several squaws, of different tribes, tell the same story, and a partial credence is given to it, from the fact that Mr.
Hunt and three other men, with that number of cattle, left Eureka some four weeks ago and have not since been heard from. The soldiers at the barracks, instead of being sent out to hunt up Indians, if for nothing else than to overawe them, are kept at the barracks doing nothing, unless it be to vote at elections. For any benefit they are to the people, in protecting their lives and property, they might as well be in Kamskatsca.

THE HUMBOLDT TIMES.

INDIA, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, JUNE 23, 1855.

BOLDLY TIMES.

Literature, Agriculture, Arts, News, and Matters in the National and State Affairs, in Home Improvement, and to the interest of the State in general.

Printed by S. BOWERS & COMPANY, at the office of the HUMBOLDT TIMES, in the City of Humboldt, Cal.

FOR THE PROPRIETOR, BY S. BOWERS & COMPANY, PRINTERS.

Subscription price, $1.00 per annum in advance, or $1.25 per annum in arrears. Single copies, 5 cents. Advertising rates, as usual.

TO HIS MORTALITY.

From the San Francisco Town Talk.

Great Party went!

The Town Talk in the Field.

A tremendous gathering of the people of all Paris, grades, ages, sex, condition and color, place the other evening in the basement of the building adjoining this office. It was one of those peculiar coming-together, no-stomach-seen-in-the-community, where the ties that connect soul to soul, heart to heart, purse to purse, and State to State, are thrown with a short turn around the liberties of mankind, and twisted into some market of the head.

After the usual preliminary proceedings, Mr. K. K. Grip, Esq., proposed that the business be proceeded with by a worship, James McAuld, Esq., suggested that Patrick O'Dianna take the chair. This raised a few shouts, but with many it stirred up considerably commotion.

K. K. Grip objected, declaring his determination not to remain, while the name of Pad presided. Here some two or three hundred flew to their feet, and said that they gloried in the blessed name of Pad; that it was the name of their fathers and mothers, and that they would not be deterred by any man in the world to speak a word against it.

This demonstration seemed to strike terror to the friends of Mr. Grip. They could only witness the proceedings so far as the motion of that miscible them-selves, so far as the motion of that miscible was concerned, that took in the pit.

Mr. Grip then rose to apologize for his friends, and to assure the audience that he was not in any way connected with the proceedings. He then stated that there should have been any misapprehension that there should have been any misapprehension in the matter. The friends, however, did not mind, was infinitely an American abolitionist, but he had long since left the ground.

Normal PATHEMATICAL DISCOURSE.

from Paris states that a most amusing war, full of who-said-what-and-did-what, is at the moment being carried out between two of the Princes of the Royal Catholic Church, the Archbishops of Paris and Lyons. Waltz or no waltz is the great question, which rivals in the intensity of the argument and interest the conflicts of Russia and Austria, and the "grace" of Lyons holds it to be without any further delay, either for or against Russia.

It is said that in case Austria or Prussia do not seem desirous in favor of the Alliance that France and England will proclaim the restoration of the independence of Poland, Hungary, Lombardy, Venetia, &c.

The camp equipage of Louis Napoleon has been delayed for the Crimea, and he was soon to follow, and the committee of the Affair-troops. On the arrival there it was expected that a combined staff would be made upon Sevastopol.

Persia has openly avowed her adhesion to Russia, to be only if any-where should arise in which international law will fully justify it. The Administration is strongly in favor of possible relations with Persia, and thought that the Administration is against our country, writes from the depressed camp at Sevastopol.

The cholera has again broken out in the French camp at Sevastopol, and continues to spread with all its usual violence. A serious overflow of the river Neva had taken place, causing much distress and destruction of property.

The Grand Dukes Michael and Nicholas have returned from the Crimea. The telegraph is now completed to Balaklava and London. The Minister of War can now converse hourly with Lord Raglan.

ADDRESS OF SENATOR JOHN W. WALKER.

The resolution in the Massachusetts House relative to aliens, was so amended as to allow aliens to vote and hold office after a residence of ten years from their arrival in the State.

It is now generally concluded that Austria and Prussia will unite together and ally themselves with Russia. From the action of the French and English Governments it is very evident that both Austria and Prussia will be forced to declare without any further delay, either for or against Russia.

It is said that in case Austria or Prussia do not seem desirous in favor of the Alliance that France and England will proclaim the restoration of the independence of Poland, Hungary, Lombardy, Venetia, &c.

The camp equipage of Louis Napoleon has been delayed for the Crimea, and he was soon to follow, and the committee of the Affair-troops. On the arrival there it was expected that a combined staff would be made upon Sevastopol.

Persia has openly avowed her adhesion to Russia, to be only if any-where should arise in which international law will fully justify it. The Administration is strongly in favor of possible relations with Persia, and thought that the Administration is against our country, writes from the depressed camp at Sevastopol.

The cholera has again broken out in the French camp at Sevastopol, and continues to spread with all its usual violence. A serious overflow of the river Neva had taken place, causing much distress and destruction of property.

The Grand Dukes Michael and Nicholas have returned from the Crimea. The telegraph is now completed to Balaklava and London. The Minister of War can now converse hourly with Lord Raglan.

The resolution in the Massachusetts House relative to aliens, was so amended as to allow aliens to vote and hold office after a residence of ten years from their arrival in the State.

It is now generally concluded that Austria and Prussia will unite together and ally themselves with Russia. From the action of the French and English Governments it is very evident that both Austria and Prussia will be forced to declare without any further delay, either for or against Russia.

It is said that in case Austria or Prussia do not seem desirous in favor of the Alliance that France and England will proclaim the restoration of the independence of Poland, Hungary, Lombardy, Venetia, &c.

The camp equipage of Louis Napoleon has been delayed for the Crimea, and he was soon to follow, and the committee of the Affair-troops. On the arrival there it was expected that a combined staff would be made upon Sevastopol.

Persia has openly avowed her adhesion to Russia, to be only if any-where should arise in which international law will fully justify it. The Administration is strongly in favor of possible relations with Persia, and thought that the Administration is against our country, writes from the depressed camp at Sevastopol.

The cholera has again broken out in the French camp at Sevastopol, and continues to spread with all its usual violence. A serious overflow of the river Neva had taken place, causing much distress and destruction of property.

The Grand Dukes Michael and Nicholas have returned from the Crimea. The telegraph is now completed to Balaklava and London. The Minister of War can now converse hourly with Lord Raglan.

We have said accounts from the north part of Georgia. The Waller Jones says that many troops are without care or any means to procure and besides, there is none for sale. He is in the neighborhood of a small town in the mountains, and is in the possession of a Government property of about a day. If they find your election, they will be in a very bad way.