

INDIAN RAID.—Under date Hiampom, June 15th, Henry C. Allen writes us that the Indians had made another raid into that valley. On the 10th they robbed his house of everything movable.— The settlers have about made up their minds to abandon their homes and crops rather than longer risk their lives in remaining to guard them.

PRIVATE MILES O'RIELLY.

Three years ago to-day
We raised our hands to heaven,
And on the rolls of muster
Our names were thirty-seven;
There were just a thousand bayonets
And the count was thirty-seven.
