

INDIAN CAPTIVES.—A correspondent of the Mendocino Herald writing from Camp No. 26, in the Eel river country, writes that the Mendocino Company have taken 160 Indian prisoners, and transferred them to a Peninsula in Humboldt Bay, where they, in company with other captives, were closely guarded. He thinks Mendocino county will soon be rid of pestilent Diggers.

THE question is, how long under the present management of our National affairs, can the people stand the burdens imposed upon them?—Copperhead paper.

About forty years. The people stood up under the burden of Democracy for twenty-five years, and that has hardened them so they can stand a long time under any lesser burden.—Bee.

Trinity Journal

Devoted to the Advancement of Home Interests.

SEBASTIENVILLE, CALIFORNIA, JULY 2, 1864.

Sebastianville

Sebastianville

The Weight of a Tear.

Glance