

INDIAN MATTERS.—We have heard much complaint within the past fortnight relative to the action of Capt. Miller, in not prosecuting the Indian campaign on the western border of the county more vigorously. Of the truth or justice of the charges made we know nothing, but are informed that citizens of Hay Fork have gone to Fort Gaston to confer with Colonel Whipple in the matter. The citizens of that valley think that if a detachment of his company would remain there the predatory bands now doing mischief might soon be cleaned out. We hope the Captain will get spunky and act on the suggestion.

We find the following

The Weight of a Tear.

A pair of scales before him, a rich man sat and weighed
A piece of gold—a widow's all—and unto her he said,
"Your coin is not the proper weight, so take it back again,
Or sell it me for half its worth, it lacks a single grain."
With tearful eyes the widow said, "Oh, weigh it, sir, once more;
I pray you be not so exact, nor drive me from your door."
"Why see yourself, it's under weight; your tears are no avail."
