

LAST CALL

15 more Men Wanted

TO FILL UP COMPANY C, 1ST Battalion Mountaineers. An opportunity for a few more men to join is offered for the last time, as the undersigned will leave for the scene of his labors on the 7th of July. Those desiring to enlist will do well to enroll their names at the earliest moment. No better opportunity for a year's steady employment will be offered soon.

ABRAHAM MILLER, Captain
Commanding Co. C, 1st Battalion Mountaineers.
Weaverville, June 25, 1863. 24.2i.

---

Weekly Trinity Journal

---

A Family Newspaper, Independent in Politics, and Devoted to the Advancement of Home Interests.

---

WEAVERVILLE, CALIFORNIA, JULY 4, 1863.

---

Society Notices:

Weekly Trinity Journal.

The Immortal Memory of Washington.
The mention of America has never failed to fill

FREDERICKSBURG.

It was met before the last fierce charge.