

Stolen By Indians!

NOTICE is hereby given that five animals belonging to me, three mules and two mares, were stolen by diggers at the time that Cedar flat was attacked and destroyed, marked and branded as follows:

One large, bay mule, branded U S on the left shoulder, and T on the left stifle; one large, black mule, branded U S on the left shoulder, and T on the left stifle; one mouse-colored mule, branded T on the left stifle; one large, gray mare, with white face, dent in the forehead, and branded T on the left stifle, and one glass-eyed, white-faced bay mare, lame in the left hip.

Also, one sorrel horse, with a white line down his forehead, taken at the same time, and in company with my animals. Any one delivering him to P. Garrett, Hoopa, or Wm. Codrington, Arcata, will be suitably rewarded.

All persons are hereby notified not to buy any of the animals described in this advertisement, as they will be proven and taken wherever found.
