On motion of Mr. Hoyt, the Convention adjourned sine die.

San Francisco, California.

The New-York Herald asserts that there is a dangerous political association of Massachusetts of a dangerous character. It is originated for the single purpose of nullifying and destroying the Fugitive Slave Law.

Strictly speaking, this league is not of an abolition character; its sole and exclusive aim is the nullification in Massachusetts of the Fugitive Slave Law.

The Public Buildings at Washington. We notice by the Atlantic papers that extensive alterations are being made in several of the public buildings at Washington.

The new dome of the Capitol building, day by day, though it has not yet assumed anything like the outline and proportions it will take when completed.

NAVIGATION OF THE SACRAMENTO AND MINO ON THE Klamath. The navigation of the country about the sources of Klamath river, and summer and fall, has proven that the river and Sacramento take their rise in the same grand plateau.

The country immediately around these lakes and along the streams which flow into and connect them, is a vast meadow of grass and lucidly the higher hills are extremely fertile.
