Poetry.

TO MY HORSE.

My stalwart steed, my faithful friend,
Whose faithful memories remain,
With strength and courage, ever kind,
Thou truest friend of man.

With thee I rode the wild, tempestuous sea,
And through the stormy night,
Thy steady pace, thy trusty thee,
My heart with joy did light.

So let us part, my faithful steed,
Thou truest friend of man.
For life and limb, for health and peace,
Thou wilt be long remembered.
