

RED BLUFFS.—The Beacon thinks that Judge Field's opinion on the Sunday Law will immortalize his name. A white man and his Squaw wife were killed lately, near Tebama. It is believed that the Indians have killed no whites, but those who have associated with them. Col. Henly has not removed the Indians to the Reservation, as requested. O. R. Johnson is independent candidate for Sheriff. The Democratic County Convention met on Tuesday, and nominated the following County officers: Sheriff, D. Dunn; Dist. Attorney, A. C. Morse; County Clerk, S. M. Bishop; Treasurer, J. G. Doll. Col. E. A. Stevenson, Hon. E. J. Lewis, Chas. Cochran and L. H. Sanborn, were chosen delegates to State Convention, pledged to support Administration measures. Resolutions endorsing the President, and denouncing the course of Senator Broderick were adopted. The District School has closed.—The Beacon is informed that Stiles and his party were not killed, as reported.

BEAVERVILLE. CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, JULY 24, 1858.

N

lumin JKS 7	SODA FOUNTAIN. NICHOLS Patent Combination Fountain WITH ASSORTED SYRUPS, AT ANDERSON & SEANAN'S.	Somebody Rattled a Snout!—Some weeks ago the Hesperian remarked on the fact that the presses whose wall was tender than the Widows of Ashur, when two hundred people were drowned in a coffin-ship, are now silent, while thousands more, forgetful of the rotten planks, are traveling the same infernal highway of honor.	THE AGENT THINKS OF SHOOTING SOMEONE.—The Agent of the Pacific Mail Company, who is suffered to occupy a seat in the U. S. Senate, recently challenged Senator Wilson to fight a duel. It was well known that Wilson was non-combatant, so that there was no possibility of our friends, the Steamship Company, losing their valuable	Eastern Side Gl... NEW ORLEANS people think they are the villains who kept them in terror during the elections. The steambot Pearl was blown up at Memphis and killed one hundred people. In Ohio, Indiana, and Ill
------------------------	--	--	---	--