

~~The wounded men of Company C, Dr.~~
Egbert informs us, are getting along well
with a prospect that all may recover.

~~Company D.—~~Capt. Simpson and Lt.
Frazer left for Mendocino county this week, to fill their company, which lacks
but fourteen men.

~~Capt. Miller, of Company C, is expect-~~ ~~ed down soon with enough men to fill his~~ company.

~~"NEELY."—~~The letter from our Fort
Gaston correspondent, published elsewhere, will be read with interest by those who feel interested in Indian matters in that section.

~~SIX KILLED:—~~The Hoopa Indians admit that six diggers were killed in the late fight on Redwood, four of whom were Hoopas, one Klamath and one Redwood. Oh, yes, the Hoopas are "good Indians."

~~Col Whipple has issued an order, di-~~
~~recting the commanding officer at Camp~~
Curtis not to furnish escorts to any citizens' trains carrying ammunition or guns other than what may be required for the use of the men accompanying the trains.

THE HUMBOLDT TIMES.
EUREKA, HUMBOLDT COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, JULY 25, 1863. No. 49.