

* GATHERING IN.—Over one hundred and forty Indians, up to this time, have surrendered themselves, to leave for the Reservation. They are at Chico. There are many more who will follow their example, or be "gathered to their fathers," summarily.