Fort Gaston.—Lt. Col. James N. Olney left Fort Humboldt on Thursday morning in command of Fort Gaston, accompanied by Captain Theodore H. M. Holland. The late commandant of that post, Capt. W. M. Jones, is at present stationed at Liscomb Hill with a portion of his company, the balance being at Elk Camp.

HUMBOLDT TIMES

EUREKA, HUMBOLDT COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, AUGUST 2, 1862.

Don't Scold.

I was making a dress for my little two-year-old Fanny, and would have finished it last evening but for the lack of a yard and a half of trimming. "You had" said I in a tone of imma-

The Criminal-Witness

In the spring of 1841, I was called to Jackson, Alabama, to tend court, having been engaged to defend a young man who had been accused of robbing the mail.— I arrived early in the morning, and immediately had a long conference with my ther have entered the room if she wished?"

"Certainly, sir; I meant that no one else had any right there."

I saw that Mrs. Nazeby, though naturally a hard woman, was somewhat moved by poor Elizabeth's misery.

"Now your honor," I said, "you will see that the letter was written to Darius Luther, Sumner county. And you will observe that the letter and receipt, and the jury will a-
