

INDIANS.—Since our last Major Heintzleman has been steadily and energetically progressing with the removal of the Indians to the Reservation. Several fleets under charge of Admiral Coburn and Rear Admiral Burr have departed, loaded with the Diggers and their worldly goods and possessions, and the probability is we shall soon be entirely rid of their delightful society. —Crescent City Herald.

STRAYED.
 A RED COW, two-thirds or one ear, under the other, branded with two Shepherd's Crooks, crossed. Any person who will leave word with L. Chapman, at the Furniture Store, Petaluma, where the above can be found, will be suitably rewarded.
 W. C. SWAINE.

Wishing.
 Of all the amusements of the mind, That I might make oppression feel,
 And break the tyrant's rod of steel,
 As only gold can break it!

Wishes.
 I wish that sympathy and love,
 And every human passion,
 That has its origin above,
 Would come and keep in fashion—
 That scorn and jealousy, and hate,
 And every base emotion,
 Were buried deep in fashion's deep
 Beneath the waves of ocean.

Wishes.
 I wish that friends were always true,
 And motives always pure,
 I wish the good were not so few,
 I wish the bad were fewer;
 I wish that persons never forgot
 To bid their plow teaching,
 I wish that preaching was not
 So different from preaching,
 I wish that modern worth might be
 Appraised with truth and candor,
 I wish that innocence were free
 From leechery and slander,
 I wish that men their vows would mind
