

ANOTHER INDIAN RESERVATION. — We have been informed that Col. Henley has made arrangements to establish another Indian Reservation in the northern part of the State, under the superintendency of Vincent E. Geiger, Esq., formerly editor of the State Journal.

THE UNION DEMOCRAT

VOLUME I. SONORA, TUOLUMNE COUNTY, SATURDAY, AUGUST 19, 1854.

PERSEVERE.—ST. C. N. Fixe!
Young man, toiling on obscurely,
moves from the door, freighted with its lovely burden.
"Filice De Vaux here!" said a tall, ancient man,
Arrival of the Sierra Nevada.
