

U. S. SOLDIER KILLED.—We learn from Hydesville, that a soldier belonging to Capt.
Lovell's command, now on Yager Creek, was murdered by Indians, one day last week. It appears that four men of the command attempted to desert, when they were attacked by the Indians, who killed one of them and wounded another. We give this as we heard it.

