
CAMP NEAR MOONE'S RANCHE, SACRAMENTO RIVER,
September 2, 1851.

SIR: I am in receipt of communications from the department, of June 27, 1851, with enclosed copy of letters sent to R. McKee, July 9, acknowledging the receipt of one from myself of 25th February, with treaty, with instructions relative to diagrams of the reservations and amount required in fulfilling treaty stipulations, all of which will be duly attended to at the first opportune moment.

I have likewise received an order and accompanying draft from the Treasury Department, for two thousand five hundred dollars, for arrearage of compensation, pay of interpreters, and incidental expenses.

I expect to complete the preliminary of the great work of pacifying and providing for the Indians within the section of country assigned to me within this present month, having made preliminary arrangements for meeting them at the remaining points.

Respectfully, your obedient servant,

O. M. WOZENCRAFT,
United States Indian Agent, California.

HON. LUKE LEA,
Commissioner Indian Affairs, Washington, D. C.
