ANOTHER BATTLE WITH THE INDIANS

The following letter we received by I Cram, Rogers & Co's Express from Mr. Dugan.

Jacksonville, Aug. 25, 1853i ... Another battle was fought with the Indians vesterday. There were 10 Indians killed, and 30 wounded. The 3 whites had lost three men killed and 8 wounded. Among the killed, was Capt. Armstrong, of Yam Hill; the other two men are from Yereka, but I have not f learned their names; the messenger, Mr. Angel, does not know their names. Col. B. R. Alden is said to be mortally wounded; the ball entered his neck and came out under his arm. Gen. Lane was also wounded in the shoulder: slightly. The battle lasted four hours, at the end of which time, chief Sam proposed an armistice which was granted; and both armies agreed to meet at Table Rock tomorrow, and have a wa-wa

The Indians numbered 250 men, and the whites 96. The battle came off at the head of Evans creek, in a canyon, about 55 miles frm here: the whites surprised them. Gen. Lane and Col. Alden were wounded while making a charge. It is generally supposed here that it is the intention of the whites to make a treaty with the Indians, on account of their agreeing to meet them at Table Rock; but for myself I have no such idea; and I think there is some other object in view, as the people of this country would not submit to it for a moment.

Three Spaniards were shot this morning 8 miles from here, near Applegate creek. One mule was shot and cargo carried off by the Indians; the Spaniards were on their way in from Crescent

City with a pack train:

Robert L. Williams arrived here yesterday from Althouse creek, for the purpose of getting a commission to raise a company of rangers, which was granted him. Capt W. J. Terry arrived last night from Crescent City, with a part of his company, the balance being behind with their provisions ammunition, &c.—His company numbers 30 men, well armed and mounted.
