

LATE AND IMPORTANT.

More Indian Fighting.

To Mr. G. C. Lusk, the active and energetic express messenger of Adams & Co., between Shasta and this city, we are indebted for the Yreka Herald of Saturday, (27th inst.,) and a manuscript prepared at Shasta, from which we select the following important intelligence from the theater of the Indian War. Mr. Lusk left Shasta yesterday morning, and arrived in this city this morning, at 3 o'clock, having rode all night. He delivered us the Herald in a few minutes after his arrival, for which attention he will please accept our sincere thanks.

General Joe Lane, the Territorial Governor of Oregon, has taken command of the white forces; and, from our knowledge of his military success in Mexico, we are very confident he will soon bring the war to a satisfactory conclusion.

ANOTHER BATTLE WITH THE INDIANS!

The following letter we received by Cram, Rogers & Co's Express from Mr. Dugan.

JACKSONVILLE, Aug. 25, 1853.

Another battle was fought with the Indians yesterday. There were 10 Indians killed, and 50 wounded. The whites had lost three men killed and 8 wounded. Among the killed, was Capt. Armstrong, of Yam Hill; the other two men are from Yreka, but I have not learned their names: the messenger. Mr.
