Indian Treaty.--The Crescent City Herald of August 20th, says:

On Monday, the 17th inst., Major Heintzelman succeeded in getting into council the Healdmen of the Klamaths, with the Opaps, Hanags, Yau-tackets and Tohnaws, whom he had recently removed on to the Reservation, at which time a treaty was made, in which they agreed to bury all hostilities that have heretofore existed between them—so live together in peace and submit any difficulties that may arise between them to the officer in charge of the Reserve for settlement.
