

Removal of the Indians.

The proceedings of a second mass meeting, held at Pence's, on the 28th inst., will be seen on the outside of this issue. It was very largely attended, and the deliberations were characterized by coolness as well as determination. There exists an unmistakable determination to persevere until the end—the removal of all the Indians from this county—is fully accomplished. The people feel as well as say that life, limb and property are unsafe—at their mercy until they go, and go they must and shall, and that very soon. Right.

THE WEEKLY UNION.

CAL., SATURDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 5, 1863.

NO

Mass Meeting.

of notice, a mass meeting of the county was held at Pence's ask their official assistance in removing the Indians.

4. That the special agent be invested with full power to act for the people in this matter

The Capture of John Morgan.

The following appears to be a correct account of the capture of this noted guerilla chief in Ohio. Upon his sudden approach,

The Painlessness of Death

All who have thought upon the know how nearly pain and pleasure are to each other. It appears as if th