

INDIAN OUTRAGES IN HUMBOLDT.—Judging from several items we find in the last number of the Times many Indians are still outside the limits of the "Hoopa Valley Reservation." On Sunday week a party of red-skins made a dash into the stock of R. M. Williams, on Bear river ridge, and killed two fine horses. Two or three days afterwards the red devils set fire to and destroyed one thousand bushels of wheat for Mr. Gould, on Eagle Prairie, six miles from Hydesville.

Without the Children.

O, the weary, solemn silence
Of a house without the children!
O the strange, oppressive stillness
Where the children come no more!
Ah! the longings of the sleepless
For the soft arms of the children,
Ah! the longings for the sweet
