Indian Treaty.—Major Heintzelman succeeded on the 17th ult. in getting into council the headmen of the Klamats, with the Copas, Hanugs, Yuktuek-ets and Tolowas, which he had recently removed on to the Reservation; at which time a treaty was made, in which they agreed to bury all animosities that have heretofore existed between them.
LEGAL ANECDOTES.—A member of the Southern Bar, having succeeded in the fol-

Another Act of the Burdell 1