"For Nome Lackee" Nevada Democrat, September 16, 1857, p. 1, col. 6.

For Nomer Lacker.—Some seventy-five or a hundred Indians were transported from Oroville on the 8th inst., in charge of Messrs. Gambrel, McLaughlin and others.—The aborigines were loaded into wagons, and their bows, arrows and yagers taken from them, and themselves trotted off in the presence of numerous anxious spectators. The poor oreatures looked and and down hearted at leaving their old home, and went away most unwillingly. It is the determination of the agent Mr. Titus, to "corral?" all the natives in that vicinity.
