

"The Company of U.S. Troops under Capt. Lovell, killed seven Indians," Weekly Humboldt Times, September
17, 1859, p. 2, col. 1.

Trustees.

The company of U. S. troops, under Capt.
Lovell, killed seven Indians, on Van Duzen Fork east of the Redwood, a week or ten days since. The Indians have killed a few head of cattle in that section, we learn.

