Mass Recting in Printole Valley. At a multic meeting of the editions of Mat- tole Valley. Humbold county held for the purpose of making a freaty of pence and friendship with the indians of said Valley, on the 4th day of September, A. D., 1898, E. W. Gillett was chosen President, and the following gentlemen appointed a committee to durit resolutions. M. J. Couldin, JHT Prenit, H. T. Brown, Joel Bonton and L. W. Gillett. The following resolutions were then unan- imously adopted. Resolved . That we, the citizens of this Vall- ley, do form and coter into a treaty of pence and friendship with the indians on the fol- lowing terms, vite. Ist. That the Indians use all due diligence to secure the persons of the three indian muderers, now running at large, who were concerned in the indians use all due diligence to secure the persons of the three indian muderers, now running at large, who were concerned in the indians for a rest the said muderers, and use all their influence to find underers, and use all their influence to find the indians in adding to arrest the said muderers, and use all their influence to firing them and the other influence to firing the influence of the stand anger, and charm, if any difficulty should misse the weath they must not set fire to the grass on the hills; that they must not drive away molest, or kill our cattle, horses, mules or hogs; that they must not set fire to the they must not set for eace, mules or hogs; that they must not set from any that they must not set from any that they must not set from any that they must not reside on our elains-with. Resolved . That the indians the permitted to return and live in the valley, collect their wild food, fish, &c. Resolved . Thut the indians the permitted to return and live in the valley, collect their wild food, fish, &c.
At a public meeting of the citizens of Mag- tole Valley, Humboldt county, held, for the purpose of making a treaty of pence and kiendship with the indians of said Valley, on the 4th day of September, A. D., 1898; E. W. Gillett was chosen President, and the following gentlemen, appointed a committee to draft resolutions. M. J. Conkin, J. H. Prenit, H. T. Brown, Joel Bonton and L. W. Chilett. The following resolutions were then unan- imously adopted. Resolved . That we, the citizens of this Vall- ley, do form and coter into a treaty of pence and friendship with the indians on the fol- lowing terms, vita. Tst. That the Indians use all due diligence to secure the persons of the three indian murderers, now running at large, who were concerned in the murder of M. Theration. 22d That they shall furnish the criticans any and all information that they may have on the able to obtain, in aiding for airest the said murderers, and use all their influence to line them to justice. 3d—That we will protect them from all danger, and charm, if any difficulty shall meet to such the influence to the said murderers. Ath—That the indians must not set fire to the said murderers. The Justice that they must not set fire to the grass on the hills; that they must pot drive away; molest, or kill our cattle, horses, mules or hogs; that they must not set fire to the grass on the hills; that they must not drive away; molest, or kill our cattle, horses, mules or hogs; that they must not set fire to the they must not set in the valley, collect their wild food, lish, we. Resolved . That the indians he permitted to retirm and live in the valley, collect their wild food, lish, we. Resolved . That this treaty of peace is only. tole Valley, Humboldt county, held for the purpose of making a treaty of perce and briendship with the indians of said Valley, on the 4th day of September, A. D., 1838; E. W. Gillett was chosen President, and the following gentlemen appointed a committee to druft resolutions. M. J. Conkin, J. H. Prenit, H. T. Brown, Joel Bonton and L. W. Chilett. The following resolutions were then unan- imously adopted. Resolved . That we, the citizens of this Vall- ley, do form and coter-hile a treaty of peace and friendship with the indians on the fol- lowing terms, vith. I st. That the Indians use all due diligence to secure the persons of the three indian murderers, now running at large, who were concerned in the murder of M. Thurnton 2d. That they shall furnish the criticals any and all information that they may have on the able to obtain, in aiding to arrest the said murderers, and use all their influence to living thread obtain, in aiding to arrest the said murderers, and use all their influence to living thread obtain, in aiding to arrest the said murderers, and use all their influence to living thread obtain, in aiding to arrest the said murderers, and use all their influence to living thread obtain, and the officially should misse between them and the official that hey must not drive away molest, or kill our cattle, horses, mules or hogs; that they must not set for to the grass on the hills; that they must not drive away molest, or kill our cattle, horses, mules or hogs; that they must not set for to the they must not reside on our claims with out our consent. Resolved , That the Indians be permitted to retirn and live in the valley, collect their wild food, fish, we. Resolved , That their treaty of peace is only.
purpose of making a freaty of pence and friendship with the indians of said Vallay, on the 4th day of September, A. D., 1898; E. W. Gillett was chosen President and the following gentlemen appointed a committee for draft resolutions: Mr. J. Conklin, J.H. Urenit, H. T. Brown, Joel Benton and E. W. Chilett. The following resolutions were then unan- imously adopted. Resolved . That we, the citizens of this Val- lay, deform and coter into a treaty of pence and friendship with the indians on the fol- lowing terms, viti- 1st – That the Indians use all due diligence to secure the persons of the three indian murderers, now running at large, who were concerned in the murder of Mr. Thoraton 2d – That they shall furnish the citizens any and all information that they may have of the able to obtain, in aiding to arrest, the said murderers, and use all their influence to line them to fusing any and all information that they may have of the able to obtain, in aiding to arrest, the said murderers, and use all their influence to line them to fusing any and all information that they may have of the able to obtain, in aiding to arrest, the said murderers, and use all their influence to line that the mark of any difficulty should mise the weak them and the othen influend to hanger, and the othen influend by the grass on the hills; that they must not drive away, molest, or kill our cattle, horses, mules or logs; that they must not steal from its that they must hot reside on our claims, with out our consent. Resolved , Thut the indians the valley, collect their wild food, fish, &c. Resolved , Thut the indians the permitted to return and live in the valley, collect their wild food, fish, &c. Resolved , Thut the indians the printer is only.
 Iriendship with the indians of said Valley on the 4th day of September, A. D., 1898; L. W. Gillett was chosen President, and the following gentlemen appointed a committee to draft resolutions: M. J. Conklin, J. H. T. Brown, Joel Benton and L. W. Gullett. The following resolutions were then unantimously adopted. Resolved, That we, the citizens of this Valletley, do form and coter-nite a treaty of peace and friendship with the indians on the following terms, vitage. Ist—That the Indians use all due diligence to secure the persons of the three indian murderers, now running at large, who were concerned in the murder of Mr. Thoratom. 2d That they shall furnish the citizens any and all information that they may have to be able to obtain, in aiding to atrest the said nurderers, and use all their influence to link in the indians. 3d—That we will protect them from all danger, and charm, if any difficulty should make the said nurderers. 4th—That the indians must not set for the grass on the hills; that they must not set from the will out eattle, horses, mules or hogs; that they must not set from the will out out on the they must not set from the will four out of the they must not set from the will four out of the they must not set from the will four out of the they must not set from the will four out of the they must not set from the will out out on the will out eattle, horses, mules or hogs; that they must not set from the will four out of the they must not set from the will four out on the will food, fish, &c. Resolved, Thut the indians the vafley, collect their will food, fish, &c. Resolved, Thut the streaty of peace is only. on the 4th day of September, A. D., 1858; L. W. Gillett was chosen President and the following gentlement appointed a committee to draft resolutions. Mr.J. Conklin, J.H. Prenit, H. T. Brown, Joel Benton and E. W. Chilett The following resolutions were then unan- imously adopted. Resolved . That we, the citizens of this Val- ley, do form and coter into a treaty of peace and friendship with the indians on the fol- lowing terms, view Ist-That the Indians use all due diligence to secure the persons of the three indian murderers, now running at large, who were concerned in the murder of Mr. Thoratom Secure the persons of the three indian murderers, now running at large, who were concerned in the murder of Mr. Thoratom Secure the persons of the three indian murderers, and use all their influence to ling them to justice of the ablerts obtain, in aiding to at est the said murderers, and use all their influence to ling them to justice 3d—That we will protect them from all danger, and charm, if any difficulty, should miss between them and the other indians, by the grass on the hills; that they must not the grass on the hills; that they must not inder on hogs; that they must not set fire to the grass on the hills; that they must not enclosures; that they must not set of our enclosures; the they must on sec of our enclosures; that they must not reside L. W. Gillett was chosen President and the following gentlement appointed a committee to draft resolutions. Mr. J. Conklin, J. H. Preuit, H. T. Brown, Joel Benton and E. W. Chilett The following resolutions were then unan- imously adopted. Resolved . That we, the citizens of this Val- ley, do form and coter-nite a treaty of peace and friendship with the indians on the fol- lowing terms, view Ist—That the Indians use all due diligence to secure the persons of the three indian murderers, now running at large, who were concerned in the murder of Mr. Thoraton 2d That they shall furnish the citizens any and all information that they may have on the ablerta optain, in aiding to arrest the said murderers, and use all their influence to ling them to justice 3d—That we will protect them from all danger, and charm, if any difficulty should mise between them and the other indians by their giving information, and assisting to arr est the said murderers. Ath—That the indians must not set fire to the grass on the bills; that they must not drive away; molest, or kill our cattle, horses, mules or hogs; that they must not set fire to the grass on the bills; that they must not enclosures that they must not set afrom us that they must not reside on our cattle, horses, mules or hogs; that they must not set afrom us that they must not reside on our cattle, horses, mules or hogs; that they must not set afrom us that they must not reside on our cattle, horses, mules or hogs; that they must not set al from us that they must not reside on our cattle, horses, mules or hogs; that they must not enter our emclosures; that they must not set al from us that they must not reside on our claims with- out our consent. Resolved ; Thut the Indians the permitted to return and live in the vafley, collect their wild food, fish, &c. Resolved ; Thut the streaty of peace is only.
following gentlemen appointed a committee to draft resolutions: M. J. Conklin, JHT Frenit, H. T. Brown, Joel Bonton and L. W. Gillett. The following resolutions were then unan- imously adopted. Resolved . That we, the citizens of this Val- ley, do form and enter into a treaty of peace and friendship with the indians on the fol- lowing terms, viti- Tst—That the Indians use all due diligence to secure the persons of the three indian murderers, now running at large, who were concerned in the number of Ms. Thorston Del That the number of Ms. Thorston Del That the visite of arrest the said murderers, and use all their influence to himg them to justice. 3d—That we will protect them from all danger, and charm, if any difficulty should miss between them and the other indians by there ring information and assisting to arr est the said murderers. dth—That the indians must not set fire to the grass on the hills; that they must not the grass on the hills; that they must not the grass of the hills; that they must not will our consent. Resolved . That they must not set from us; that they must not reside on our claims.with- out our consent. Resolved . That this treaty of peace is only.
 To dealt resolutions: M. J. Conklin, Jeth. Frenit, H. T. Brown, Joel Benton and L. W. Gillett. The following resolutions were then unanimously adopted. Resolved. That we, the citizens of this Walley, do form and enter-into a treaty of peace and friendship with the indians on the following terms, vita. Tst.—That the Indians use all due diligences to secure the persons of the three indian murderers, now running at large, who were concerned in the murder of Ms. Theretonic 2d That they shall furnish the entire indian murderers, now running at large, who were concerned in the murder of Ms. Theretonic 2d That they shall furnish the entires any and all information that they may have, on the able to obtain, in aiding to arrest the said murderers, and use all their influence to hime them to justice. 3d—That we will protect them from all danger, and charm, if any difficulty should arrise the weat them and the other indians by the grass on the hills; that they must not set fire to the grass on the hills; that they must not set from the grass on the hills; that they must not set from the mules or hors; that they must not set from the work; that they must not set from the work in the value, collect their wild food, fish, &c.
Gallett. The following resolutions were then unan- imously adopted. Resolved, That we, the citizens of this Val- ley, do form and coter into a treaty of peace and friendship with the indians on the fol- lowing terms, via. Ist—That the Indians use all due diligence to secure the persons of the three indian murderers, now running at large, who were concerned in the murder of Mr. Thoraton 221 —That they shift furnish the citizens any and all information that they may have on he able to obtain, in aiding to arrest the said murderers, and use all their influence to hime them to justice 3d—That we will protect them from all danger, and harm, if any difficulty should merse between them and the other indians by the grass on the hills; that they must not drive away; molest, or kill our cattle, horses, mules or hogs: that they must not set from us; that they must not reside on our claims Gallett. The following resolutions were then unan- imously adopted. Resolved, That we, the citizens of this Val- ley, do form and coter into a treaty of peace and friendship with the indians on the fol- lowing terms, via. Ist—That the Indians use all due diligence to secure the persons of the three indian murderers, now running at large, who were concerned in the murder of Mr. Thoraton 221 —That they shift furnish the citizens any and all information that they may have on he able to obtain, in aiding to arrest the said murderers, and use all their influence to hime them to justice 3d—That we will protect them from all danger, and harm, if any difficulty should merse between them and the other indians by the grass on the hills; that they must not drive away; molest, or kill our cattle, horses, mules or hogs: that they must not set from us; that they must not reside on our claims Gallett. The following resolutions were then unan- imously adopted. Resolved, That we, the citizens of this Val- ley, do form and coter into a treaty of peace and friendship with the indians on the fol- lowing terms, via. Ist—That the Indians use all due diligence to secure the persons of the three indian murderers, now running at large, who were concerned in the murder of Mr. Thoraton 221 —That they shift furnish the citizens any and all information that they may have on he able to obtain, in aiding to arrest the said murderers, and use all their influence to hime them to justice 3d—That we will protect them from all danger, and harm, if any difficulty should merse between them and the other indians by the grass on the hills; that they must not drive away; molest, or kill our cattle, horses, mules or hogs: that they must not set from us; that they must not reside on our claims imously adopted. Resolved . That we, the citizens of this Val- ley, do form and coter-into a treaty of peace and friendship with the indians on the fol- lowing terms, via. Ist—Uhat the Indians use all due diligence to secure the persons of the three indian murderers, now running at large, who were concerned in the murder of Me. Thoratonr 2d —That they, shift furnish the citizens any and all information that they may have or he able to obtain, in aiding to arrest the said murderers, and use all their influence to hing them to justice 3d—That we will protect them from all danger, and charm, if any difficulty should mise between them and the other indians by their giving information, and assisting to arr rest the said murderers. 4th—That the indians must not set fire to the grass on the hills; that they must not drive away; molest, or kill our cattle, horses, mules or logs; that they must not set from the inter of logs; that they must not set if on that they must not set if on that they must not set if on Risolval . That they must not set if on the grass on the hills; that they must not drive away; molest, or kill our cattle, horses, mules or logs; that they must not set if on the grass in the hills; that they must not wild food, fish, we, Resolved . That they in the valley, collect their wild food, fish, we, Resolved . That this treaty of peace is only imously adopted. Resolved . That we, the citizens of this Val- ley, do form and coter-into a treaty of peace and friendship with the indians on the fol- lowing terms, via. Ist—Uhat the Indians use all due diligence to secure the persons of the three indian murderers, now running at large, who were concerned in the murder of Me. Thoratonr 2d —That they, shift furnish the citizens any and all information that they may have or he able to obtain, in aiding to arrest the said murderers, and use all their influence to hing them to justice 3d—That we will protect them from all danger, and charm, if any difficulty should mise between them and the other indians by their giving information, and assisting to arr rest the said murderers. 4th—That the indians must not set fire to the grass on the hills; that they must not drive away; molest, or kill our cattle, horses, mules or logs; that they must not set from the inter of logs; that they must not set if on that they must not set if on that they must not set if on Risolval . That they must not set if on the grass on the hills; that they must not drive away; molest, or kill our cattle, horses, mules or logs; that they must not set if on the grass in the hills; that they must not wild food, fish, we, Resolved . That they in the valley, collect their wild food, fish, we, Resolved . That this treaty of peace is only ley, do form and coter-nito a treaty of peace and friendship with the indians on the following terms, via. Ist—That the Indians use all due diligence to secure the persons of the three indian murderers, now running at large, who were concerned in the murder of Mr. Theratom. 2.d That they shall furnish the critizens any and all information that they may have. or he able to obtain, in aiding to acrest the said murderers, and use all their influence to him them to instinc. 3.d—That we will protect them from all danger, and sharm, if any difficulty should miss must not set first the grass on the hills; that they must not set first or here, what they must not set first or here. with—That the indians must not set first or here. with the indians must not set first or here on enclosures; that they must not steal from us; that they must not steal from us will food, fish the protect the protect the protect their will food, fish the protect the protect the protect the ley, do form and coter-nito a treaty of peace and friendship with the indians on the following terms, via. Ist—That the Indians use all due diligence to secure the persons of the three indian murderers, now running at large, who were concerned in the murder of Mr. Theratom. 2.d That they shall furnish the critizens any and all information that they may have. or he able to obtain, in aiding to acrest the said murderers, and use all their influence to him them to instinc. 3.d—That we will protect them from all danger, and sharm, if any difficulty should miss must not set first the grass on the hills; that they must not set first or here, what they must not set first or here. with—That the indians must not set first or here. with the indians must not set first or here on enclosures; that they must not steal from us; that they must not steal from us will food, fish the protect the protect the protect their will food, fish the protect the protect the protect the
and friendship with the indians on the fol- lowing terms, via: Ast—That the Indians use all due diligence to secure the persons of the three indian murderers, now running at large, who were concerned in the murder of Mr. Thoratom 2d —That they shall furnish the critizens any and all information that they may have or he able to obtain, in aiding to atrest the said murderers, and use all their influence to living them to justice 3d—That we will protect them from all danger, and sharm, if any difficulty should measure the mand the other indians by their giving information, and assisting to an rest the said murderers. Ath—That the indians must not set fire to the grass on the hills; that they must not drive away; molest, or kill our cattle, horses, mules or hogs; that they must not set fire our enclosures; that they must not steal from us; that they must not reside on our claims with- out our consent. Resolved , That the Indians be permitted to return and live in the valley, collect their wild food, fish, &c. Resolved , That this treaty of peace is only. lowing terms, via: 1st—That the Indians use all due diligence to secure the persons of the three indian marderers, now running at large, who were concerned in the marder of Mr. Theriton 2d —That they shall furnish the critizens any and all information that they may have or he able to obtain, in aiding to arrest the said marderers, and use all their influence to light them to justice 3d—That we will protect them from all danger, and harm, if any difficulty should messe between them and the other indians, by the grass on the hills; that they must not set fire to the grass on the hills; that they must not drive away; molest, or kill our cattle, horses, mules or hogs; that they must not set fire to that they must not reside on our claims with- out our consent. Resolved , That the Indians be permitted to return and live in the valley, collect their wild food, fish-ac. Resolved , That this treaty of peace is only.
1st—That the Indians use all due diligence to secure, the persons of the three indian murderers, now running at large, who were concerned in the murder of Mr. Thoraton — 2d —That they shall furnish the criticens any and all information that they may baye, or he able to obtain, in aiding to arrest the said murderers, and use all their influence to bring them to justice — 3d—That we will protect them from all danger, and harm, if any difficulty, should mease between them and the other indians by their giving information, and assisting to arr rest the said murderers. —4th—That the indians must not set fire to the grass on the hills; that they must not drive away; molest, or kill our cattle, horses, mules or hogs; that they must not set from use that they must not seal from use that they must not reside on our claims with- out our consent. — Resolved , That the reater, collect their wild food, fish, sec. … Resolved , That this treaty of peace is only. to secure the persons of the three indian murderers, now running at large, who were concerned in the murder of Mr. Thoraton 2d That they shall furnish the citizens any and all information that they may have on he able to obtain, in aiding to arrest the said murderers, and use all their influence to hime them to justice 3d—That we will protect them from all danger and harm, if any difficulty should mise between them and the other influence to the grass on the hills; that they must not the grass on the hills; that they must not drive away; molest, or kill our cattle, horses, mules or hogs; that they must not set from us that they must not seal from us; that they must not reside on our claims with out our consent. Resolved , That this treaty of peace is only.
murderers, now running at large, who were concerned in the murder of Mr. Thoraton -2d That they shall furnish the citizens any and all information that they may have on he able to obtain, in aiding to arrest the said murderers, and use all their influence to living them to justice -3d That we will protect them from all danger and harm, if any difficulty should muse thetween them and the other indians, by their giving information and assisting to an rest the said murderers. -4th—That the indians must not set fire to the grass on the hills; that they must not drive away; molest, or kill our cattle, horses, mules or hogs; that they must not steal from us; that they must not reside on our claims with- out our consent. Resolved ; That they in the vafley, collect their wild food, fish, we, Resolved ; That this, treaty of peace is only.
Al That they shall furtish the citizens any and all information that they may have oblic able to obtain, in aiding to abrest the said murderers, and use all their influence to bring them to instince
Al That they shall furtish the citizens any and all information that they may have oblic able to obtain, in aiding to abrest the said murderers, and use all their influence to bring them to instince any and all information that they may have, or he able to obtain, in aiding to arrest the said murderers, and use all their influence to bring them to instinc. 3d—That we will protect them from all danger, and harm, if any difficulty should mise between them and the other indians by their giving influence and the other indians by the grass on the hills; that they must not drive away; molest, or kill our cattle, horses, mules or hogs; that they must not steal from is; that they must not reside on our claims with out our consent. Resolved , Thut the Indians be permitted, to return and live in the valley, collect their wild food, fish, we, Resolved , Thut this treaty of peace is only.
on he able to obtain, in aiding to arrest the said murderers, and use all their influence to bring than to justice. 3d—That we will protect them from all danger, and harm, if any difficulty should make between them and the other indians by their giving information, and assisting to arr rest the said murderers. Ath—That the indians must not set fire to the grass on the hills; that they must not drive away; molest, or kill our cattle, horses, mules or hogs; that they must not seal from is; that they must not reside on our claims with- out our consent. Resolved , That this treaty of peace is only.
said murderers, and use all their influence to Bring them to justice 3d—That we will protect them from all danger, and harm, if any difficulty should mise between them and the other indians by their giving information, and assisting to an rest the said murderers. Ath—That the indians must not set fire to the grass on the hills; that they must not drive away; molest, or kill our cattle, horses, mules or hogs; that they must not set from is; that they must not seal from is; that they must not reside on our claims with out our consent. Resolved ; That the indians the permitted to return and live in the vafley, collect their wild food, fish, we. Resolved , That this, treaty of peace is only.
Bring than to justice. 3d—That we will protect them from all danger, and harm, if any difficulty should miss between them and the other indians by their giving information, and assisting to an rest the said murderers. Ath—That the indians must not set fire to the grass on the hills; that they must not drive away; molest, or kill our cattle, horses, mules or hogs; that they must not steal from is; that they must not steal from is; that they must not reside on our claims with- out our consent. Resolved , That the indians be permitted to return and live in the vafley, collect their wild food, fish, we. Resolved , That this, treaty of peace is only.
3d—That we will protect them from all danger, and harm, if any difficulty should make between them and the other indians by fifter giving information, and assisting to an rest the said murderers. Ath—That the indians must not set fire to the grass on the hills; that they must not drive away; molest, or kill our cattle, horses, mules or hogs; that they must not set from the grass that they must not steal from is; that they must not reside on our claims with- out our consent. Resolved, That the indians be permitted, to return and live in the valley, collect their wild food, fish, &c.
the grass on the hills; that they must not set fire to the grass on the hills; that they must not the grass on the hills; that they must not drive away; molest, or kill our cattle, horses, mules or hogs; that they must not steal from is; that they must not steal from is; that they must not reside on our claims with out our consent. Resolved ; That the Indians be permitted to return and live in the vafley, collect their wild food, fish, we. Resolved , That this, treaty of peace is only.
the grass on the hills; that they must not set fire to the grass on the hills; that they must not the grass on the hills; that they must not drive away; molest, or kill our cattle, horses, mules or hogs; that they must not steal from is; that they must not steal from is; that they must not reside on our claims with out our consent. Resolved ; That the Indians be permitted to return and live in the vafley, collect their wild food, fish, we. Resolved , That this, treaty of peace is only.
their giving information, and assisting to art, rest the said murderers, Ath—That the indians must not set fire to, the grass on the hills; that they must not drive away; molest, or kill our cattle, horses, mules or hogs; that they must not steal from as that they must not steal from as that they must not reside on our claims with- out our consent. Resolved , That the Indians be permitted to return and live in the vafley, collect their wild food, fish, we, Resolved , That this treaty of peace is only.
rest the said murderers. Ath—That the indians must not set fire to the grass on the hills; that they must not drive away; molest, or kill our cattle, horses, mules or hogs; that they must not steal from us; that they must not reside on our claims with- out our consent. Resolved ; That the Indians be permitted to return and live in the valley, collect their wild food, fish; we, Resolved ; That this treaty of peace is only.
Ath—That the indians must not set fire to the grass on the hills; that they must not drive away; molest, or kill our cattle, horses, mules or hogs; that they must not steal from us; that they must not reside on our claims with- out our consent. Resolved ; That the Indians be permitted to return and live in the valley, collect their wild food, fish; we, Resolved ; That this treaty of peace is only. the grass on the hills; that they must not drive away; molest, or kill our cattle, horses, mules or hogs; that they must not steal from us; that they must not reside on our claims with out our consent. Resolved, That the Indians be permitted, to retarn and live in the valley, collect their wild food, fish, we. Resolved, That this treaty of peace is only.
mules or hogs; that they must not enter our enclosures; that they must not steal from mis; that they must not reside on our claims with out our consent. Resolved; That the Indians be permitted to return and live in the valley, collect their wild food, fish, we, Resolved, That this treaty of peace is only.
mules or hogs; that they must not enter our enclosures; that they must not steal from mis; that they must not reside on our claims with out our consent. Resolved; That the Indians be permitted to return and live in the valley, collect their wild food, fish, we, Resolved, That this treaty of peace is only.
enclosures; that they must not steal from us; that they must not reside on our claims with out our consent. Resolval ; Thut the Indians be permitted to return and live in the valley, collect their wild food, fish, we, Resolved , Thut this treaty of peace is only.
that they must not reside on our claims with out our consent. Resolved, Thut the Indians be permitted. to return and live in the valley, collect their wild food, lish, &c. Resolved, Thut this treaty of peace is only.
out our consent. Resolved, That the Indians be permitted to retarn and live in the valley, collect their wild food, lish, &c. Resolved, That this treaty of peace is only.
Resolved; Plut the Indians Do permitted, to return and live in the valley, collect their wild food, fish, &c. Resolved, That this treaty of peace is only. to return and live in the valley, collect their wild food, fish, &c. Resolved, That this treaty of peace is only.
wild food, fish, &c. Resolved, That this treaty of peace is only.
Resolved, That this treaty of peace is only.
Resolved, That this treaty of peace is only.
 F. C. C. C. Press, Manual Strategy, and a statistical state of a state of a made with the Mattoles, and does not extend to any other tribes of ludians, and that they must not harbor any Indians from the Ous couse Creek, Berl River, Kel River, or any other Indiads-who-do-not-belong to-the Mattoles.

Resalied, That this fronty of peace is only made with the Mattoles, and does not extend to any other tribes of Indians, and that fliev must not diarbor any Tudians from the Cuscouse Creek, Bear River, Eel Biver, or any other-Indians-who-do-not-bolong-to-the Mattoles.

Resalved, What we disconntenance, and will not permit any while men to go into the Indian rancharerias-to interfere with the squaws or children, or in any way molest them,

Resolved, That we will not allow white men who are renegades from other portions of the State or county to reside in this walk -ley-roudive-unnong-the-Indians- Phats we consider all such persons a disgrace to any a source of trouble and difficully with the Indians. We therefore can not, and will not, permit them to dive among. the Indians, on us Resolved, That these resolutions, be pub. lished in the Humboldt Times, as a notice to the public and a warning to those white men who are renegades and lugitives from justice, and that we will not permit them in luture to make our valley a hiding place for any such outlaws. 6.00 M. J. CONKLIN J. H. FREUH ILT. BROWN JOEL-BENTON W. GILLEPT Committee.