

From Shasta.

The following items of news are gleaned from the Shasta Courier, of the 18th instant:

THE TRINITY INDIANS SUEING FOR PEACE.—We learn that the Indians on the South Fork of Trinity river, have quit their wild retreats in the mountains, and come into the mining settlements. Some two or three hundred came in and desire to make a treaty, binding themselves to refrain from stealing mules, stock, &c., and to cease shooting white men, and wish to be allowed to hunt, fish and dig roots, &c. in the vicinity. These are the Indians which Capt. Dixon, with about thirty men, chastised so severely some months since, for murdering Anderson and stealing his stock. One sound thrashing, for depredations committed, is worth more, in securing a lasting peace with these savages, than all the beef and blankets that can be given them. Until within the past few days, a commissioner would have been in great danger of losing his scalp, and especially his mule, if he had attempted to hunt them up to treat with them. They are now extremely anxious to treat on the above easy terms. They have, we understand, recently suffered considerably for the want of food, which they are now desiring to be allowed to procure along the streams and valleys unmolested.

LATER FROM OREGON.—We have dates from Oregon to the 4th inst. The overland immigrants are
