

More Indian Prisoners.—John Hughes, who is at present riding the mail between Hydesville and Long Valley, informs us that he met Joe Bartlett, with a detachment of soldiers from Fort Baker, with about fifty Indians, whom they had caught in the vicinity of Red River. They were conveyed here to Fort Baker.

HUMBOLDT TIMES.

HUMBOLDT COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1862.

TELEGRAPH. Havana says a Confederate war steamer has been declared to be in a state of revolt. EX-GOVERNOR PETER H. BURKE ON Eastern U.S.