

INDIAN RESERVATION NOTICE.

FORT GASTON, CALIFORNIA,

August 21, 1864.

BY VIRTUE OF POWER VESTED IN ME by an Act of Congress, approved April 8th, 1864, and acting under instructions from the Interior Department, dated at Washington City, D. C., April 23th, 1864, concerning the location of four tracts of land for Indian Reservations in the State of California, I do hereby proclaim and make known to all concerned, that I have this day located an Indian Reservation, to be known and called by the name and title of the said Reservation being situated on the Trinity river, in Klamath county, California, to be described by such metes and bounds as may hereafter be established by order of the Interior Department, subject to the approval of the President of the United States.

Hoopa Valley Reservation,

Settlers in Hoopa Valley are hereby notified not to make any further improvements upon their places, as they will be appraised and purchased as soon as the Interior Department may direct.

AUSTIN WILEY,

Superintendent of Indian Affairs

Hasst been where the fall-blossom'd bay-tree is blowing
With odours like Eden around?
Hasst seen where the broad-leaved palmetto is growing,
And wild vines are fringing the ground?
Hasst sat in the shade of catalpas, at noon,
And ate the cool gourd of the clime?
Or slept where magnolias were serenading the moon,
And the mocking bird sung her sweet rhyme?
