
INDIAN troubles in Trinity and Humboldt counties are becoming quite serious. Burning and murder is being carried on by the savages at a fearful rate. Captain Mellen, Commander at Fort Crook, has received orders from below to proceed to Trinity county and quell the Indian disturbance there. The Capt will no doubt, make short work with the red skins.

OROVILLE WEEKLY UNION

OROVILLE, BUTTE CO., CAL., SATURDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 26, 1863.

Article from a Journal
"Northwestern States."
MENT IN NORTH CAROLINA.

is the remarkable article in the Raleigh (N. C.) Standard. It is reported to have been written by Daniel, Speaker of the House of Representatives, aided by F. H.
President of the Governor's and, without any reference to its constitution-ality, should have been regarded as an organic law, and observed as sacredly as the Constitution itself.

The effect of this measure was great and rapid, and there can be but little doubt that it was such as a majority of its authors contemplated. The result was the formation of a great party in the North opposed to the further months, as they said it would; should it ensue, it has already lasted more than two years; and if their policy is to be pursued, it will last more than two years longer; and, notwithstanding their predictions, the Yankees have fought on many occasions with a spirit and determination worthy of their ancestors of the Revolution—worthy of the descendants of those ancient old Puritans whose heroic spirit and porary Governments for the three remaining new Territories, to-wit: Colorado, Nevada, and Decatur. These acts contain no trace or indication of the Wilmot Proviso, or any other prohibition against the introduction of slavery, but on the other hand expressly declare, among other things, that "no law shall be passed impairing the rights of private property; nor shall any discrimination be made in terms—to Almighty God for having but recently occured in your columns, I feel that and will, therefore, after greetings to you, close for this
