

INDIANS SHOT. -- We were favored yesterday with a visit from Father O'Reilly. He informs us that two of the leaders of the Indian outbreak in Trinity county, recently entered Weaverville, as spies, passing themselves off as "friendly Indians." Their real character, however, was discovered, and they were followed and shot down. It was found that each had concealed about his person a rifle and six-shooter.

Bluff Beacon

Politics, Literature, Education, Agriculture, General Intelligence

BLUFF, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1863.

EASTERN NEWS.

TELEGRAPH TO SEMI-WEEKLY BEACON.]

Races! Races!!

H. KRAE

Wholesale and Retail Dealer,
ENGLISH AND AMERICAN