

INDIANS DYING.—The Grass Valley National mentions the fact that many of the Penn Valley Indians are dying off. The disease which is so fatal to them is diarrhoea. The chief of the tribe, Capt. Lutz, died some two or three weeks since.

THE RECORD

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1858.

An Indian Mystery.

About two o'clock yesterday afternoon a canoe heavily laden with provisions, and propelled by the efforts of fifteen or twenty Indians

Uncle Sam's Grievances.—

A correspondent of the Bulletin, writing from Mexico, on the 19th of August, says that he fears the readers of your paper may