

INDIAN DIFFICULTIES.—From the Humboldt Times, we learn that the Indian troubles are increasing in the north, and more murders of valuable citizens have been committed. The people are thoroughly roused, and determined, to use the words of the Times, "to remove the Indians from that section alive or dead." A tax of fifty cents on the hundred dollars has been levied on all property in Union, and half that in Eureka to pay the expenses of prosecuting the war. The Times denounces the government authorities in charge of the Mendocino Reservation in bitter terms as utterly worthless.

The Mail steamer Golden Gate arrived this morning at 8 o'clock, with dates from New York to the 6th, and from London to the 1st of September.

The grand celebration in New York, on the 1st of Sept. in honor of the success of the Atlantic Telegraph, was probably the most magnificent affair of the kind, that ever took place on this Continent. The city was treated by tens of thousands of strangers, and from early in the morning till long after midnight, Broadway was a perfect jam, all vehicles being ordered out of the street, almost every building was appropriately decorated with banners bearing inscriptions relating to the laying of the Cable and the persons engaged in it.

The procession under the auspices of the Commercial Union was very imposing. Upwards of 100,000 persons were present for the first time

Mysterious Murder.

The body of an unknown man was found Sept 12th, in Santa Cruz county, on the San Juan and Watsonville road, about six miles east of the latter town. The man had evidently been murdered two or three weeks, at the time the body was found. Some of the San Francisco papers stated that the remains were supposed to be those of the Swiss Consul at San Francisco, who absconded some five months since, being a bankrupt and defaulter, who, it was thought, had committed suicide. The following particulars, which are given in the San Jose Tribune, show the improbability of this surmise, and would lead to the belief that the man had been murdered:

The body lay some thirty yards from the main road, and in full sight of it. The forehead, just above the eye had been pierced by a bullet. The corpse was in an advanced state of corruption, and had also, perhaps, been mutilated by the coyotes, so that the features were altogether undistinguishable. It was evident, however, that the man was of light complexion with sandy hair, and about forty years of age. The clothing was general; a tweed frock coat, cassimere pantaloons, and black felt hat. A knife-scarboard and a pistol-scarboard were found on the body; and in the pockets were found a 2-0 piece and a $5 piece. The appearance of the clothing, which were torn open at the waist, was such as to warrant the supposition that a money belt had been worn, and had been roughly torn from the body. About the time when the murder is supposed to have been committed a man answering the description, (and supposed, for what reasons we are not informed, to be a drover from Marysville, on his way to the South to purchase cattle,) passed through San Jose, having come from San Jose on the San
