

Recovered.—Some of the friendly Indians have brought in Casebeer's gun, and it is now in possession of Andrew Starber, on Eel River, we are informed. It will be remembered that the Indians that were lynched stated that one of them—'Big Jack'—stole the gun from Casebeer's house, shot him with it, and then carried it off.

