

INDIAN HUNTING.—A party of men on Clear Creek, in Shasta county, recently went out on an Indian hunt and returned with a number of squaws and children. During their absence they killed fourteen Indians. The bodies of three white men, one woman and three children recently found beyond the Butte, twelve miles from the immigrant trail leading to Yreka. They had evidently been butchered by the Indians.