

INDIAN WAR IN THE NORTH — We learn from the Trinity Journal that Governor Weller has ordered the Indians of the northern counties to be flogged until they are willing to be removed to the reservations. To do the flogging part he has ordered General Kibbe to the North, accompanied by Colonel Henly as bearer of the Olive branch of reservation peace. We commend this action of the Governor. The murderous red-skins of that vicinity require a good flogging. But think of Col. Henly, the late "War-horse of Democracy," as the gentle Olivia of Leocomptonism! The precious Lamb!

THE RECORD

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1858.

the med
n a ack,
tues
neo-city

A Stage Romance.

Wisconsin has just been the scene of nearly a tragedy worthy of Shakspeare. The curtain rises in a house near Jackson and Martin streets, and the prompter's bell is three pistol shots.
It seems that a young lawyer, who rence

The September

BY OLIVER WENDELL

I'm not a chicken; I have Full many a chill Septem
And though I was a young