

ALL QUIET.—We have not heard of any Indian depredations since those three men were killed, on Mad River, three weeks since. The Indians, no doubt, are preparing for winter. We have not heard of any hostilities north of Mad River, since the citizens cleaned them out. They have probably had enough to do to take care of their wounded. In the mean time the troops are protecting the different posts in this section of country, and it is thought they are strong enough to hold them.

HUMBOLDT TIMES

EUREKA, HUMBOLDT COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1862.

Netty Marvin.

When the British and Tories attacked New London, Connecticut, in 1781, and set a price on the head of Gov. Griswold, the latter fled to the town of L—— where his cousin, Mrs. Marvin, hid him for some days in a secluded farm house. But at length the subtle foe discovered

“I couldn't tell a lie sir,” was the tearful answer.

“Netty,” again began the smooth-tongued Tory, “you're a nice child. Everybody knows you are a girl of truth. What did your cousin say when you told him you would not tell a falsehood?”

“He said he shouldn't think I'd betray tions, as hereinbefore mentioned, shall be binding on each assessor and his assistants, and on each collector and his deputies, in the performance of the duties enjoined by or under this act: pursuant to which instructions the said assessors shall, on the first day of August, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, and on by the said assessors, as good and reputed as such property, goods, merchandise, articles, under and for the

Sec. 13. And by the owners, possessors, and the care of man-