

ANOTHER VICTORY OVER THE "RED SKINS."
Gen. Kibbe informs the Red Bluff Beacon, that a portion of his men, under Lieut. Van-Shell, made a gallant attack on a large body of Indians, at a lake on the head waters of Pitt river, and gained a most signal victory. Quite a number were killed, some taken prisoners, and all their rancherias burned.

