

INDIAN MEETING.—We publish in another column the proceedings of a public meeting at Hydesville in reference to Indian affairs. The object of the meeting was to ascertain if it be the wish of the people of the county to get rid of the domestic Indians, particularly those who have Indians bound to them. Also, to provide for prisoners and attend to the removal of all vagrant natives. An adjourned meeting will be held at the same place one week from this evening, when all will have an opportunity to state their views and advocate their peculiar plans.
