

Indian Troubles.— Mr. Ross, the butcher at Eureka, says that the Indians are beginning to become troublesome again on Bear River and in the Mattols. In addition to the burning of Kinross's house, they have robbed Olmstead's, Spencer's and Rothman's, and have been killing cattle on Mattols for Finch, Patrick, Hicks and others.

HUMBOLDT TIMES

REKA, HUMBOLDT COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1862.

The Oath.
BY THOMAS BUCHANAN READ.

The Secret of McClellan's Popularity.
A Washing'on correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, who does not conceal

FROM WASHINGTON TERRITORY.—From Puget Sound papers of September 27th,
we gather the following items:

TIMELY REMINISCENCE.—The N. J., Guardian has this timely reminiscence: