

FROM THE INTERIOR,

Shasta.

The Courier takes exceptions to the opinion of the Attorney General of this State, that the residence of a person dates from the time of his leaving home to become a citizen of California, and also arrives at the conclusion that John Bodley "has been vilcily slandered!"

The U. S. Troops under Mr. Fitzgerald, are stationed in Scott Valley, "awaiting (as usual) the arrival of provisions and necessary equipments!" As yet they have done nothing, nor, says the Courier, do the citizens of Yreka expect that they will accomplish anything the present winter.

Frosts have been frequent about Yreka, and very much improved the health. The Whigs held an enthusiastic meeting there on the 13th inst, to ratify the nominations of W. A. Robertson, for District Judge, and W. G. Proctor, for Assembly.

A political discussion was held in Shasta Oct. 13th, between Mr. Sprague, on the part of the Democrats, and Mr. Moody, for the Whigs. These gentlemen spoke twice each, under the half hour rule.

Geo. Thompson escaped from the officers of the law at Shasta, on Saturday, 23d ult. He had been arrested on a charge of horse stealing in El Dorado county, and is known to be the leader of a gang of murderers and thieves in the southern counties.

A ball was given at the Assembly rooms in One
