

A MONSTROUS ATROCITY.—The charge against Capt. John T. Hill, on trial before a Court Martial, is of the most enormous character. It is alleged that while marching with his company in Nevada, a dead Indian woman was found, with a living infant clinging to the body, and that Captain Hill ordered it to be put to death in the most barbarous manner.

ly Trinity Journal

newspaper, Independent in Politics, and Devoted to the Advancement of Home

WEAVERVILLE, CALIFORNIA, NOVEMBER 4, 1865.

JOHN W. OWENS.

JAS. B. McCAIN,
San Francisco.

P. McCLURE, Weaverville.

Weekly Trinity Journal.

Some Day

"Some day" is the burden
that's never done in any...