

MATTOLE.—In a letter we have received speaking of matters in Mattole, the writer states that the detachment which has been stationed at Mattole, under Sergt. Harris, is now at Camp Grant, and that its place should be supplied by another.—
“There is plenty of evidence,” says he, “that Indians are in that vicinity, and it is important that there should be a small body of troops stationed there for the protection of the lives and property of the citizens.”
