The Ventriloquist.

One of ours, who is liberally endowed with vocal powers, related to us long since an interesting adventure in which he played a prominent part, that made us really envy his success in manufacturing fun. Our friend was A Charming Revenge.

A late Paris letter relates an exquisite and at the same time bloodless vengeance of a deposed official:

"Mr. Tesch is the Belgian Minister of Justice. A few days ago he denounced a justice of The Comforts of Defeat.

The English ran ninety miles from Bannockburn, scared by the "gillics" and the baggage-wagons. They paid back their debt at Culloden. The Prussian armies were routed at Jena and Austerlitz. They had their re-
